The Singapore Education Network (SEN) is a network of Education Professionals & Organizations in Singapore and Asia.

We are an

Education Community,

Information Platform,

Business Partner,

to give stakeholders in the education sector an opportunity to share - learn - collaborate.

This network of Education professionals came from the desire to connect people from the education space in Singapore and the region, which in many ways is driven by partnerships and synergies between different stakeholders.

In 2020, the Singapore Education Network was established.
Company Background

Founder

Michael is a professional with extensive working experience in the education and training sector. Having worked in 7 different countries (Germany, UK, Singapore, Indonesia, Sri Lanka, India, Thailand), he has gained substantial international experience in the education sector, largely in the Asian region. His interest is primarily in international education, employability, edtech and entrepreneurship matters.

Our Story

In 2016, Michael Klemm started inviting Education professionals for a casual exchange of ideas and insights every 2-3 months. Encouraged by the feedback, more activities and services were gradually introduced for an even wider range of education professionals. In early 2020, the Singapore Education Network was officially established.
FREE Membership

There is NO membership fee or any other obligation attached to the SEN membership.

Currently, SEN has over 1,100+ members from public & private universities, high schools, EdTech & e-learning companies, think-tanks, teachers, trainers & coaches, corporates, government agencies, investors, associations and more. While most members are from Singapore, about 1/4 are from outside Singapore in Asia and globally.
